1. Purpose

This Travel & Expense (“T&E”) Policy establishes the guidelines and minimum standards governing domestic and international business travel undertaken on behalf of EFL Global.

The purpose of this policy is to,

1. Ensure business travel is undertaken only for legitimate and necessary business purposes.
2. Establish a clear and consistent process for travel planning, approval, booking, expense management, reimbursement, and supporting documentation, while ensuring fairness in administration across the organization, with proper reporting, transparency, financial control, and effective management oversight of travel-related expenditure.
3. Ensure safety of employees and compliance with applicable laws, travel regulations, company policies, and local cultural norms, while avoiding any activities that may create legal, security, or reputational risks to the employee or the company.

2. Scope

- This policy applies to all entities of EFL Global & its subsidiaries worldwide.
- All local policies must align with and adhere to the requirements set forth in this policy.
- Any deviations from this policy or any local policies that conflict with this policy must be submitted to EFL Global HQ for review and approval.

3. Roles & Responsibilities

- Employees - When planning business travel, company resources must be used prudently and in accordance with the policy.
- Approver - Review and approve business trip plans and related expenses in compliance with this policy
- Finance - Check compliance of travel and expense reports and process expense reimbursement requests on a timely basis.
- HR / Admin / Finance - Arrange and manage insurance coverage for business trips.

4. Travel Application & Authorization

4.1 Business Travel Plan

4.1.1 Application

- Annual travel plans at EFL Global must be incorporated into the annual budgeting process and formally approved by the relevant Country Head, HQ Functional Heads, Regional Heads, and HQ Finance as part of the overall budget sign-off
- Travel approval requests via Travel Request Form (TRF) (Annexure 1) should be sent at least one month prior to the intended travel date with due consideration to visa processing timelines and to ensure the most economical rates are secured.

4.1.2 Emergency Travel

- For emergency business trips (departures within 48 hours), retroactive TRFs are permitted; however, prior written or email approval from the supervisor is still required. TRFs need to be submitted within 3 days after completing the travel. All such incidents must be duly noted in the remarks section of the TRF.

4.2 Authorization Matrix

Entity Type	Employee Category	First Approval	Final Approval
Station	Non-managerial employees	Dept. Head Country Head Regional Head	Global CEO
	Dept. Head	Country Head Regional Head	Global CEO
	Country Head	Regional Head	Global CEO
Corporate HQ	Non-managerial employees	Dept. Head Functional Head	Global CEO
	Dept. Head	Functional Head	Global CEO
	Regional Head	N/A	Global CEO
	Functional Head	N/A	Global CEO

Table 1: Authorization Matrix

- The approval matrix outlined above applies to international business travel.
- All domestic business travel must be approved by the relevant Country Head in accordance with local approval requirements and policies.

4.3 Travel Advance Payment

4.3.1 Application

- Employees may request a travel advance for approved business travel expenses, excluding meal expenses.
- The request must be submitted through the approved Travel Request Form (TRF), with the requested amount and justification clearly stated.
- Requests should be submitted to the Finance Department at least five (5) business days prior to the required payment date to allow sufficient time for processing.

4.3.2 Settlement

- Post Travel Expense Report (Annexure 2) must be submitted within 10 business days after returning with necessary approvals.
- Original, itemized receipts must be attached.
- Any unused funds must be returned to the Finance Department within the same timeframe.
- Failure to submit the required supporting documents within the stipulated timeframe may result in the outstanding travel advance being recovered from the employee.

4.3.3 Emergency Travel

- In urgent situations (e.g., important client meetings requiring departure within 48 hours), employees may proceed with the trip first and submit supporting documents afterward.
- Written or email approval from the employee's direct manager and the relevant approver(s) is required for the processing of a travel advance.

5. Special travel arrangements

5.1 Extended Business Travel

- Business trips exceeding 30 consecutive days are treated as temporary assignments and require prior consultation and approval. Assignment accommodation & allowance must be approved according to the authorization matrix mentioned in 4.2.

5.2 Combining Business Travel with Personal

- If a business trip is combined with personal travel, only the business-related portion of the expenses is eligible for reimbursement.
- If the return flight departs from a different location due to personal vacation, the employee must provide a flight quote for a same-day return from the business destination as the reimbursement benchmark. Any additional costs must be covered by the employee.

6. Transportation

6.1 Air Transportation

6.1.1 Flight Booking

- The most economical route to the destination should be chosen by the employee through the company nominated travel agent or company-approved websites/tools.
- Use the same airline, direct flights, and round-trip tickets whenever feasible.
- If no direct flights are available or a direct flight does not meet business needs, employees may choose a connecting flight with the shortest and most convenient layover.
- Rates should be negotiated with the agent by the travel desk, based on prevailing rates online. Ticket booking can only be confirmed once the TRF is approved and the PO is released by the Finance Department to the travel agent.
- The traveler should give due consideration to ensure tentative booking is made with the preferred travel arrangement and give adequate notice for approvals within the given timeframe for securing rates and bookings
- If employees pay for the ticket using a personal credit card, they must mention this on the Post Travel Expense Report for reimbursement of actual expense incurred.
- Unless there is a special reason and prior approval has been obtained, actions that result in additional cancellation fees, service charges, or penalties such as booking multiple flights for the same itinerary are prohibited.
- In the event of travel being extended due to unforeseen circumstances, the employee may be forced to cancel his return ticket and extend the days of hotel stay. Prior approval of extensions should be sought from the approvers mentioned in the authority matrix.

6.1.2 Class of Service Policy

- The permitted class of service is determined based on travel duration and job title:

Content	Employee Level	Travel Duration & Class
		≤6 hrs	>6 hrs
Class of Air Travel	Global CEO	Business Class
	C- Suit, Directors, Country Heads, Global Leaders	Premium Economy	Business Class
	Head, GM, SM	Economy	Premium Economy
	All Other Employees	Economy	Economy

Table 2: Class of Service - Air Travel

- All employees are required to travel in Economy Class for domestic business travel.
- Duration of travel is defined as the travel time taken for one sector of the entire journey.
- Wherever possible, we recommend all travel plans to be made within 2-3 months in advance to make use of offers and preferential rates.
- Exceptions for class upgrades may be granted by approval according to the Authority Matrix.
- Upgrades due to medical needs must be justified by a doctor's note.

6.1.3 Flight changes & Cancellations

- Employees requesting reimbursement for flight changes or cancellations must submit the following:
- Detailed Explanation - A clear reason for the change or cancellation, including the specific circumstances that led to the adjustment.
- Manager Approval - Written approval from the direct manager (e.g., email or signed document) to ensure transparency and accountability.
- Receipts & Documentation - All related receipts, including fees for flight changes or cancellations, to verify the expenses incurred.

6.2 Ground Transportation

6.2.1 Taxi & ride sharing service

- Taxi, train, and rental car expenses that are reimbursable applies to transportation between airports, hotels, and business locations.
- Company would reimburse the airport drop and pick up taxi fare from home to the airport and vise- versa.
- If a receipt is unavailable, a screenshot must be provided to justify the expense.

6.2.2 Rail transportation

- For train travel with multiple seating classes, Directors, C-Suit, Country Heads & Global Leaders may use a higher class corresponding to Business class; all other employees must use standard class.

6.2.3 Car rental

- Employees should choose economy, or mid-size vehicles.
- Free upgrades offered by the rental company are acceptable.
- When possible, employees with similar path/destination should share one rental car.

6.2.4 Reimbursable expenses

- Reimbursable expenses mentioned below should be mentioned in the Post Travel Expense Report to be claimed
 - Fuel
 - Tolls and cross-border charges
 - Parking fees

6.2.5 Traffic violations, penalties, and fines are the sole responsibility of the employee

7. Lodging

7.1. Hotel Booking

7.1.1 General guidelines

- Hotel booking must be on standard room rates on Bed & Breakfast basis, in a hotel which is in close proximity to the workplace or intended place of visit in order to keep travel time and cost to a minimum.
- The hotel booking to be arranged by the traveler, who should check with the destination EFL station for any Corporate Hotel rates that might be in place, if not the most cost-effective rates that could be obtained through the travel agent, at least 3 quotes to be evaluated.
- All other incidental expenses such as use of mini bar, alcohol consumption inhouse bar etc. is to be borne by the traveler.
- Accommodation costs above the recommended hotel rates will not be reimbursed, unless approved by the direct manager due to lack of availability of cost neutral options.
- If employees are traveling to destinations without recommended hotels, hotels must be pre-approved by their direct manager based on similar class level as typical recommended hotels.

7.1.2 Maximum hotel accommodation limits for short-term international travel (Up to 3 Weeks)

Zone (refer 8.1.3)	Hotel Accommodation Per Day Amounts
Zone 1	USD 100 - USD 250
Zone 2	USD 100 - USD 200
Zone 3	USD 75 - USD 150

Table 3: Hotel accommodation limits

- Employees are expected to book accommodation within the approved limits for the relevant travel zone.
- Any accommodation exceeding these limits requires prior approval from the designated approver.

8. Meals

8.1 Meal Per Diem

8.1.1 Process & overview

- Employees undertaking international business travel are eligible for a meal per diem allowance based on the applicable travel zone and rates set out in the table mentioned under 8.1.2. The allowance is intended solely to cover meal, snack, and beverage expenses incurred during the business trip.
- The meal per diem will be paid in advance and no receipts or supporting documentation are required for expenses covered by the allowance.
- Any meal expenses incurred in excess of the applicable per diem limit will not be reimbursed unless prior approval has been obtained from the relevant approver in accordance with the approval authority matrix.
- The employee must provide the finalized travel itinerary to the Finance Department to facilitate the preparation of the Meal Per Diem Claim Form (Annexure 3). The completed form signed by the employee, together with the approved TRF, must be submitted prior to the release of funds.
- The meal per diem entitlement will be calculated based on the approved travel start date and end date, irrespective of flight departure or arrival times.
- Any other approved business expenses incurred during the trip that are not covered by the meal per diem allowance may be claimed separately upon submission of supporting documentation, in accordance with the Reimbursement section of this policy.
- The meal per diem allowance does not cover personal expenses, including but not limited to toiletries, personal care items, and other non-business-related purchases.

8.1.2 Meal per diem limit by zone

Zone	Daily Limit
Zone 1	USD 60
Zone 2	USD 50
Zone 3	USD 40

Table 4: Meal Per Diem

- If traveling across multiple regions in one day, the highest applicable daily limit applies. For example, if the employee visits Hong Kong (USD 60) and then travels to Thailand (USD 50) on the same day, the USD 60 limit will apply.
- No meal per diem allowance shall be payable for personal leave or holiday days taken during a business trip.

8.1.3 Classification of countries by Zone

Region	Countries
Zone 1	United States, Canada, Europe, Australia, East Asia & Singapore.
Zone 2	South America, Middle East & Southeast Asia (Excluding Singapore)
Zone 3	South Asia, Africa and any other countries

Table 5: Classification of countries

- Regional Classification of Countries:
 - East Asian Countries include – China, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Mongolia & Macau.
 - Southeast Asian Countries include – Vietnam, Thailand, Philippines, Cambodia, Indonesia, Myanmar, Malaysia, Laos, Brunei & East Timor.
 - South Asian Countries include – Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan & Sri Lanka

9. Travel Insurance

- Statutory and company-mandated travel insurance applies to all business trips.
- Insurance may be arranged through an annual policy or single-trip policy, depending on the frequency and purpose of travel.
- If additional coverage is required, coordinate with local HR.
- Personal voluntary insurance is not eligible for company reimbursement.

10. Other Reimbursable Payments

11. Reimbursement Procedure

11.1. Submission

11.1.1 Timeline

- Employees must submit a Travel Expense Claim Form (annexure 4) along with the Post Travel Expense Report and the approved TRF within 10 business days after returning from the trip.
- Clearly indicate any expenses that were paid in advance by the company (e.g., airfare, hotel) to avoid duplication.

11.1.2 Receipts

- All expenses must be supported by original, itemized, and valid receipts. For example, hotel invoices should show daily room rates, taxes, and any additional charges.
- These requirements ensure proper documentation for internal review and future audits.

11.1.3 Processing Time

- Subject to the submission of a complete and approved claim, reimbursement will be processed within fourteen (14) business days of receipt by the Finance Department.
- If there are disputes or missing documents, reimbursement may be delayed or denied.

11.2. Foreign Currency

- Exchange and Conversion Exchange rates should be the average rate during the travel period.
- Supporting documents must be provided, such as: Currency exchange slips, Bank or credit card statements, or Receipts showing the original currency and converted amount.
- Currency conversion fees may be reimbursed if valid documents are submitted.

12. Responsibility and Liability

Travelers are personally responsible for ensuring they are familiar with this policy and for maintaining compliance. Non-compliance with this policy may result in the traveler being denied reimbursement of expenses or facing disciplinary action.

Policy Review

This policy shall be reviewed periodically by EFL Global HQ to ensure its continued relevance, effectiveness and alignment with business requirements, market conditions, regulatory requirements and organizational objectives.

Headquarters reserves the right to amend, update or revise this policy at any time. Any changes to the policy will be communicated to employees through the appropriate channels and shall take effect from the date specified in the communication.
